

Diocese of Denver

ELIZABETH KELLY, Correspondent.

The Intermountain and Colorado Catholic is placed on sale at the James Clarke church goods house, 67 California street, Denver, Colo.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Matz at Canyon City.

Right Rev. Bishop Matz spent Sunday in Canyon City, where he confirmed a class at St. Scholastica's academy. He was entertained at dinner by the Sisters and in the afternoon their pupils presented a musical and literary program for his pleasure. On his return to Denver Bishop Matz was accompanied by Rev. Father Belar of the Cathedral, who was for some time in Canyon City attending to the duties of Rev. Father Hickey during the latter's vacation in California, where he was obliged to go on account of failing health.

Retreat at the Cathedral.

A three days' retreat for the young women of the Cathedral parish will commence in Logan avenue chapel on Wednesday evening, December 4, and close on the feast of the Immaculate Conception, which is the patronal feast of the parish. Rev. H. L. McMenamin will conduct the exercises and his wish is to make the retreat as successful as the ones he has given annually ever since he assumed spiritual charge of the Young Ladies' sodality. Though all the young women of the parish are urged to attend the instructions, the retreat is in a particular manner given for the Young Ladies' Sodality and Children of Mary in preparation for their great feast on which occasion both societies will receive a large number of recruits.

Young Women's Sodality.

The Young Women's Sodality is compiling a catalogue of its library, which now contains between 500 and 600 volumes. One thousand copies of the catalogue will be printed for distribution and in this way the young women hope to create an interest in the library and through it in their society.

Examination of Priests.

The examination of the Junior Priests of the state will be held at Logan Avenue chapel on Tuesday, November 26. Priests from all over the diocese will attend.

Church Notes.

Rev. Father O'Driscoll of Gloucester, Sanitarium, Colorado Springs, was the guest of Rev. Father Walsh at Mercy hospital, Denver, for a few days this week.

On Thursday, November 7, Rev. Father Phillips of the Cathedral had a narrow escape from what might have been a very serious accident. While standing waiting for a car the crowd jostled him and another car that was moving and he was thrown violently to the ground and but for ready hands extended to rescue him would have been under the moving wheels. His many friends rejoice that he received nothing more than a shock from which he has now fully recovered.

St. Vincent's Orphanage Ball.

A mass meeting was held Sunday afternoon in Logan Avenue chapel to make arrangements for the annual ball in aid of St. Vincent's orphanage. The ball will be held on Sunday, November 24, at the Casino on New Year's night, and the committee has been so fortunate as to secure the magnificent banquet hall of El Jebel temple for the occasion.

St. Clara's Aid Society.

The regular meeting of St. Clara's Aid society was postponed from Monday, November 11, to Monday, November 18.

Queen's Daughter's Meeting.

A special meeting of the Queen's Daughters has been called for Saturday afternoon, November 16, at the home of Mrs. Daniel G. Monaghan, 1673 York street. Business of importance will be brought before the meeting and a full attendance is earnestly desired.

At the last meeting of St. Vincent's Aid society the president, Mrs. George T. Kearns, appointed a committee of men to secure ground and make arrangements for the building of a nursery in connection with St. Vincent's orphanage. The following compose the committee: Messrs. P. R. Riordan, J. W. Benson, Joseph Walsh, James Connors, George T. Kearns, Frank J. Connors, Charles J. Dunn, John H. Mullen and Dr. P. V. Carlin. They met Tuesday evening with some of the officers of the society at the home of Dr. P. V. Carlin, 1408 Stout street, and discussed the matter, but no definite steps will be taken until the fall is disposed of. The members all agree that the erection of such a building will fill a long-felt need as St. Vincent's is the only Catholic institution in the state admitting babies and the idea is to have this branch of the orphanage in proximity to St. Joseph's hospital that the little folks may have the benefit of medical attention from the hospital staff.

A. O. H. Ball.

Military division No. 4, Ancient Order of Hibernians, gave its annual ball Thursday evening, Nov. 14, at Granada hall, Welton and Eighteenth streets. The affair was a very pleasant one.

Knights of Columbus Ball.

The Knights of Columbus are preparing for their annual ball to be given at Huston hall, Thanksgiving night.

Concert at Littleton.

Many Denver people went out to Littleton Wednesday evening, Nov. 13, to attend the entertainment given in the town hall for the benefit of St. Mary's Catholic church. A splendid musical and dramatic program was presented, and the local talent was ably assisted by some of Denver's sons and daughters, among whom may be mentioned Messrs. J. Benedict Foley, Peter Monaghan, E. Walker and J. McNamara, Messrs. Rose Gibbons, Eunice Walker, Alice Caffrey, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. E.

Peters, who presented a very laughable little play entitled "A Proposal Under Difficulties." Miss Peters rendered a solo on the piano. The affair was given under the auspices of the ladies of St. Mary's congregation, and great credit is due them for the admirable entertainment provided. A neat sum was realized.

Rev. Father Ryan Will Preach.

Rev. Father Ryan of St. Leo's church has accepted an invitation to deliver an address before the Young Ladies' Jewish Alliance at its large public meeting Tuesday evening, Nov. 19. Father Ryan's long connection with philanthropic work has made him an authority, and the young Jewish women are anxious for his advice in the good work to which they have devoted their time and money.

Wedding Bells.

A very interesting double wedding took place Thursday evening, Nov. 14, in Logan Avenue chapel. Rev. Father McMenamin performed the ceremony that made Miss Mary A. Simpson the wife of Lewis E. Hanna, while at the same time her sister, Miss Evelyn Simpson, became Mrs. Charles A. Scott. Miss Mary Simpson was attended by Miss Irene Church, and Howard Hanna, brother of the groom, was best man. Miss Evelyn Simpson's maid of honor was Miss Mary Carroll, while Mr. Scott was attended by Sherwood Simpson. The brides were given in white silk with long tulle veils, and carried bride's roses. The maids of honor also wore white. The church was beautifully decorated, and the whole scene was a charming and effective one. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Simpson, 908 Eleventh street. The house was elaborately decorated in pink and white carnations, and this color scheme was carried out in the refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Hanna will reside in Denver, but Mr. Scott took his bride to El Dorado, Okla., where he is established in business. Mr. Scott and Mr. Hanna are converts to the Catholic faith, having recently been instructed and baptized by Rev. Father McMenamin.

Miss Alice McLaughlin, one of Denver's very popular daughters and a gifted educationist, was married (s) Wednesday, Nov. 13, to Patrick Donnelly, a wealthy stockman of Plattsmouth, Mo. The ceremony was performed in Sacred Heart church at nuptial mass by Rev. Father Barry, S. J. After mass the bridal party and intimate friends partook of a wedding breakfast at the bride's home, 2736 Welton street. Mr. and Mrs. Donnelly left the same day for Kansas City, where they will make their home.

Miss Mildred Colligan and Albert Des Rocher, two members of the "Just Out of College" company, were the principals in a pretty wedding celebrated Thursday, Nov. 7, in St. Leo's church. Rev. Father O'Ryan officiated at high nuptial mass. Miss Ethel Lloyd attended the bride, while the best man was Lester Crawford. The bride's mother, Mrs. J. F. Mullen, came out from New York to be present on the occasion. After the ceremony the bridal party and members of the company enjoyed an elaborate wedding breakfast at St. James hotel.

Personal.

William Ford, a prominent Knight of Columbus, and the popular secretary of the Denver stock exchange, was removed to St. Joseph's hospital last week suffering from appendicitis, but is now considerably better.

Mrs. Robert Craig and children are visiting in Victor.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil C. Alt returned last week from their honeymoon at Colorado Springs, and spent a few days with Mrs. Alt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Myers, 2508 Champa street, before proceeding to their new home in Seattle.

Mrs. Fred P. Johnson of 552 Sherman avenue, accompanied by her little son, Mahlon, and her mother, Mrs. James Foley, returned last week from a two months' visit in the east, which included a tour of the great lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Keating are home from a pleasant visit to the south and east.

M. J. O'Fallon has entirely recovered from injuries recently received in a runaway.

Obituary.

The body of Mr. J. D. Cummings, who died on Sunday, Nov. 3, was shipped to the family home in Shelby, O., for interment. Mr. Cummings was a sufferer from tuberculosis and came to Colorado in search of health, but too late.

Miss Emma Hovorka, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hovorka, died on Monday, Nov. 4, at the family home, 4349 Zenobia street. Miss Hovorka belonged to a family prominent in the upbuilding of the Holy Family parish. Her brother is organist of the church, and her father leader and director of the choir. Miss Hovorka herself was active in several religious societies and a teacher in the Little Sun-day school. Only a few months ago the Hovorka family had the proud distinction of assembling in Holy Family church and assisting at the first mass celebrated by young Father Hovorka, a brother of the dead girl. Another brother consecrated his life to God six years ago, but died after a short service in His vineyard. Requiem mass was said for Miss Emma Hovorka Wednesday, Nov. 6, by Rev. Lawrence Pale, S. J., in Holy Family church. The remains were shipped at noon the same day to Minnesota, accompanied by several members of the bereaved family.

The body of Miss Agnes McCune, who died in Denver on Nov. 4, was shipped to Elmwood, Ill., for interment.

The funeral of John Sullivan, who died in Canon City on Nov. 4, was held on Wednesday from St. Leo's church, in West Denver. Rev. Father O'Ryan celebrating requiem mass. Interment was in Mount Olivet cemetery. The remains were accompanied to Denver by a brother, Timothy Sullivan of Canon City. Another brother, Cornelius Sullivan, of Georgetown, Colo., came to the city to attend the funeral.

On Saturday, Nov. 9, Miss Nellie McDonald passed away at her home, 1917 Washington avenue. Her funeral occurred Tuesday with requiem mass at Logan Avenue chapel. Interment was in Mount Olivet cemetery. Miss McDonald was employed as a stenographer in the Denver National bank, and had been here but a short time, having come from Chicago.

Mrs. Katherine Rogenberger, wife of Gottlob Rogenberger of 3225 Wewatta street, died on Saturday, Nov. 9, after a short illness. Funeral was held Monday morning from St. Annunciation church, and was attended by a large number of friends and representatives of religious societies of which deceased and her husband had been members during their long term of residence in Denver. Burial was in Mount Olivet cemetery.

The body of George Simpson, who died at the Chestnut Branch hotel in Baltimore on Saturday, Nov. 2, was brought to Denver and interred in Mount Olivet cemetery on Friday, Nov. 8. Owing to the fact that he succumbed to a contagious disease, the funeral was necessarily private, but on Friday, Nov. 15, Rev. Father McMenamin sang requiem high mass in Logan Avenue chapel for the repose of his soul. Many friends of the family attended, also his former teachers and companions in Immaculate Conception school. George was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Simpson of 1719 Glavin street. Miss Muriel Simpson, also survives him.

Mrs. Mary Cody, a Colorado pioneer, and one of the oldest residents of St. Patrick's parish, was called to her reward on Sunday, Nov. 10. Her funeral occurred Wednesday morning from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Hogan, 2212 West Twenty-ninth avenue. Requiem mass was said at St. Patrick's church by Rev. Father Carrigan. Burial was in Mount Olivet cemetery. Mrs. Cody is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Katherine Hogan and Miss Annie Cody.

LEADVILLE, COLO.

The boys at the fire station are good guessers. When Captain Frank O'Brien left Monday for a vacation trip to Pueblo and Denver, they guessed that he would be married. He merely laughed at their jesting, and positively denied that he had any such intentions. Their worst fears were confirmed when a telephone message last night, announced that Frank and Miss Margaret O'Connell of Pueblo had been made one. They are now waiting for his return, and promise to give him a royal reception. — Herald Democrat.

COLORADO SPRINGS.

Piercy Dunn, fireman on the Colorado Midland railroad, has been transferred from Wild Horse to this city. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crouch have gone to Denver to reside for a few days this evening of Alva Hughes and Miss Blanch Williams.

ASPEN, COLO.

Jack Leahy, who has been in Denver a few days, returned to Aspen yesterday looking quite metropolitan. Miss E. Sweeney, who has been recuperating in the city for the past few days, returned to his mining property at Ashcroft yesterday morning on the stage.

Miss Maggie Sullivan has accepted a position at the Singer Sewing Machine company's office on East Hyman avenue.

BUTTE, MONT.

The services of the forty hours' adoration of the Blessed Sacrament opened in the chapel at St. James' hospital Sunday morning with mass at 6:30 o'clock. The devotion will close on Saturday evening with a sermon by one of the priests attached to St. Patrick's church.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Byrne this week moved into the Warren residence, leased by them, and where they are now at home.

Madame McCarron, going over to visit her daughter, Miss Lydia, who is attending Sacred Heart academy. Mrs. O. K. Lewis of Salt Lake was the complimentary guest Tuesday afternoon at a most charming bridge, with Mrs. T. T. McBride as hostess.

P. Sullivan returned Monday afternoon from a trip to Philadelphia, where he went on business. He had Ed Davis as a passenger going over, and Davis will remain there and work as a blacksmith for the Granite company. News of the death of F. C. Sullivan at Goldfield, Nev., last Monday, was received in Butte Tuesday. The body is en route to Butte and will be taken to the Sherman & Reed undertaking establishment. Mr. Sullivan formerly resided here. He went to Goldfield about four months ago. He is survived by a number of relatives here. Mr. Sullivan was unmarried.

DEER LODGE, MONT.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mulcahy returned home this week from an extended eastern trip. They visited the cities of Washington, New York and Boston, and spent some time with relatives in New York state and Ohio. Miss Emily Schroeder has returned from Salt Lake, where she has been taking a course as a trained nurse in the Salt Lake hospital.

Beware of Grafters.

Notwithstanding the strict laws made by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Scanlan in regard to collecting in this diocese, yet each year under one subterfuge or another these statutes are violated. The law is made to protect persons from being imposed upon. It is strictly in conformity with the Council of Baltimore. Church members should be the first to discourage all such persons, no matter in what garb they appear, or what they propose to do. Any appeal for pecuniary aid, whether in the form of collection, or sale of books or religious articles, is strictly prohibited. We refer our readers to the standing notice, which appears in our editorial columns.

Three Big Sales at Keith-O'Brien's Beginning Monday

Stirring reductions in Silks and Dress Goods—Ladies' French Underwear at half prices, and Carpets, Rugs and Draperies at exceptional reductions.

RHYOLITE, NEV.

Ed Busch of Busch Brothers, left last week to look after the company's interests in the Virgin river oil fields. Little Miss Marie Busch gave a party to her friends and playmates at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon in celebration of her ninth birthday. Con O'Donnell, general manager of the Homestead King, returned Wednesday from a trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles in connection with the new mill soon to be installed at this property. The Wednesday Bridge club met last week at the home of Mrs. Joseph Small. Mrs. J. J. McGuinness won the prize, a beautiful hand-painted vase. Refreshments were served. William P. McCauley, proprietor of the Southern hotel, left last week for Hamilton, Mont. Mrs. McCauley and baby will return with him in about two weeks.

EUREKA, NEV.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. D'Arcy and children and Miss Anna McGarry of Superior, Wis., were recent arrivals at Bullfrog, Nye county, for an extended visit with the family of M. J. Garry.

POCATELLO, IDA.

John McManis of this city is home from a business trip to Kemmerer. Mrs. J. J. McGuinness won the prize, a beautiful hand-painted vase. Refreshments were served. William P. McCauley, proprietor of the Southern hotel, left last week for Hamilton, Mont. Mrs. McCauley and baby will return with him in about two weeks.

ANACONDA, MONT.

The body of Mrs. E. M. Cornelius arrived in the city Monday from Birmingham, Junction, Utah. Mrs. Hughes sister came to Anaconda with the body. The time for the funeral has not been set.

Catholic University.

Washington, Nov. 12.—The board of trustees of the Catholic University of America, at a meeting here today, placed the seal of disapproval on so-called "modernism" as a serious danger to the church. The board expressed its sentiments on this question by instructing Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore, chancellor of the university and president of the board of trustees, to write a letter to the holy pontiff declaring the adhesion of the university and its trustees to the important encyclical on "Modernism" recently made public at Rome. The encyclical was discussed at length, and it developed that the members of the board strongly favored the sentiments which it contained. Richard C. Kerens of St. Louis was elected trustee.

Holy Land, Rome, Lourdes and Loreto.

A pilgrimage to the above, together with a grand tour of Egypt and the south of Europe, by McGraw's Catholic Tours, 187 Broadway, N. Y. City, to leave New York January 16, 1908. Write for particulars.

"The Store Beautiful" Draperies Made to Order.

Write, telephone, or call at the store and have our drapery man submit plans and estimates for any work you have contemplated. Full line of drapery materials and fixtures always in stock.

The Greenwald Furniture Co.

FRED STROUSE, Pres. 33 to 43 WEST THIRD SOUTH ST. J. A. GREENWALD, Secy.

CURIOS

CURIOS, LEATHER NOVELTIES

Leather for Postal, Pillows, Burnt and Burnt Leather Pillows, $3.50 to $5.00, at

J. E. KENYON,

23 W. South Temple Street, Salt Lake City. Mail orders promptly attended.

CATERING

For Wedding Receptions and Social Functions a Specialty. Phone for estimates.

J. H. R. Franklin Company

Phone 135. 288 Main

Mr. T. A. Boyle, Thirty Years with

The Knight-Campbell Music Co.

(The Largest Music Concern in Colorado. Established 1874.)

Pianos, Piano Players, Player Pianos, Organs, Talking Machines, Sheet Music, Etc.

Instruments sold on easy payments.

Write for Catalogues, mentioning this paper.

Our retail warerooms occupy the entire building at 1525-27-29-31 California street, Denver, Colo.

Independent
Phone 277
Calls all Departments

Walker's

Toyland opening,
Monday, November 18.

Bigger than ever! Better than ever! The entire basement devoted to pleasing the little folks.

Phone Olive 1582.

HUDDART FLORAL CO.

Phones 108.

CUT FLOWERS, DECORATIONS, FUNERAL DESIGNS, ETC.

Opposite Grand Theatre.

THE JAMES CLARKE CHURCH GOODS HOUSE

RELIGIOUS ARTICLES, CATHOLIC BOOKS, MAGAZINES, ETC.

The Largest Catholic Supply Concern in the West.

1648-47 California St., Denver, Colo.